

PATRON BEHAVIOR & RULES OF CONDUCT POLICY

Patron Behavior

The Saratoga Springs Public Library is open to everyone; all are welcome to use the Library's services and resources. In order that all library users may have a pleasant library experience, users are expected to respect the rights of others and to adhere to the following behavioral rules. This policy applies equally to children and adults. Parents or guardians are responsible for providing proper supervision of children, while in the library.

The Library's rules of conduct are intended to maintain a considerate and orderly atmosphere, preserve easy access to Library services and resources, and to protect Library property. People who willfully violate these rules are subject to exclusion from the Library; egregious violations may result in immediate exclusion or in a longer exclusion than indicated in these guidelines.

Individuals who repeatedly violate these Rules of Conduct after having been previously excluded for Library rule violations may face a longer exclusion than indicated in these guidelines. Repeat offenders need not violate the same rule to be subject to stricter enforcement and may not be warned that their behavior is inappropriate before being excluded.

Rules of Conduct

Any person who violates rules 1-6 while on Library premises will be immediately ejected without first being given a warning. Any person so excluded shall lose all Library privileges for a period of up to three years, and the incident will be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency.
